

Global Services and Capabilities

Our team of experts offers an unmatched combination of economic credentials, industry expertise, and testifying experience.

Insight in Economics

NERA has been applying economic principles on behalf of clients around the world for more than half a century, providing analysis, expert testimony, and regulatory insight in complex litigation, regulation, and business situations. Our reputation for innovation and insight rooted in fundamental economics has made NERA the firm of choice for clients seeking solutions to their most serious legal, regulatory, and market challenges.

We were alone in our field when NERA was founded in 1961. That field is more crowded today, but NERA remains in a class apart. Our team of experts offers an unmatched combination of economic credentials, industry expertise, and testifying experience. We bring together a thorough understanding of markets, a commitment to innovative application of economics, accounting, statistics, finance, and quantitative techniques, and a passion for finding the right answer.

NERA brings the right perspective and the most valuable insights to every project we take on, no matter the circumstances.

Insight in Our Approach

NERA is known for innovation in the application of economics—applying new methods and perspectives to achieve results for our clients. However, our work is grounded in a set of core principles that have always guided our pioneering efforts: focus, independence, defensibility, and clarity.

Focus—We apply rigorous economics.

We maintain a single-minded focus on rigorously applying the highest quality economic expertise on behalf of our clients.

Independence—We are unbiased.

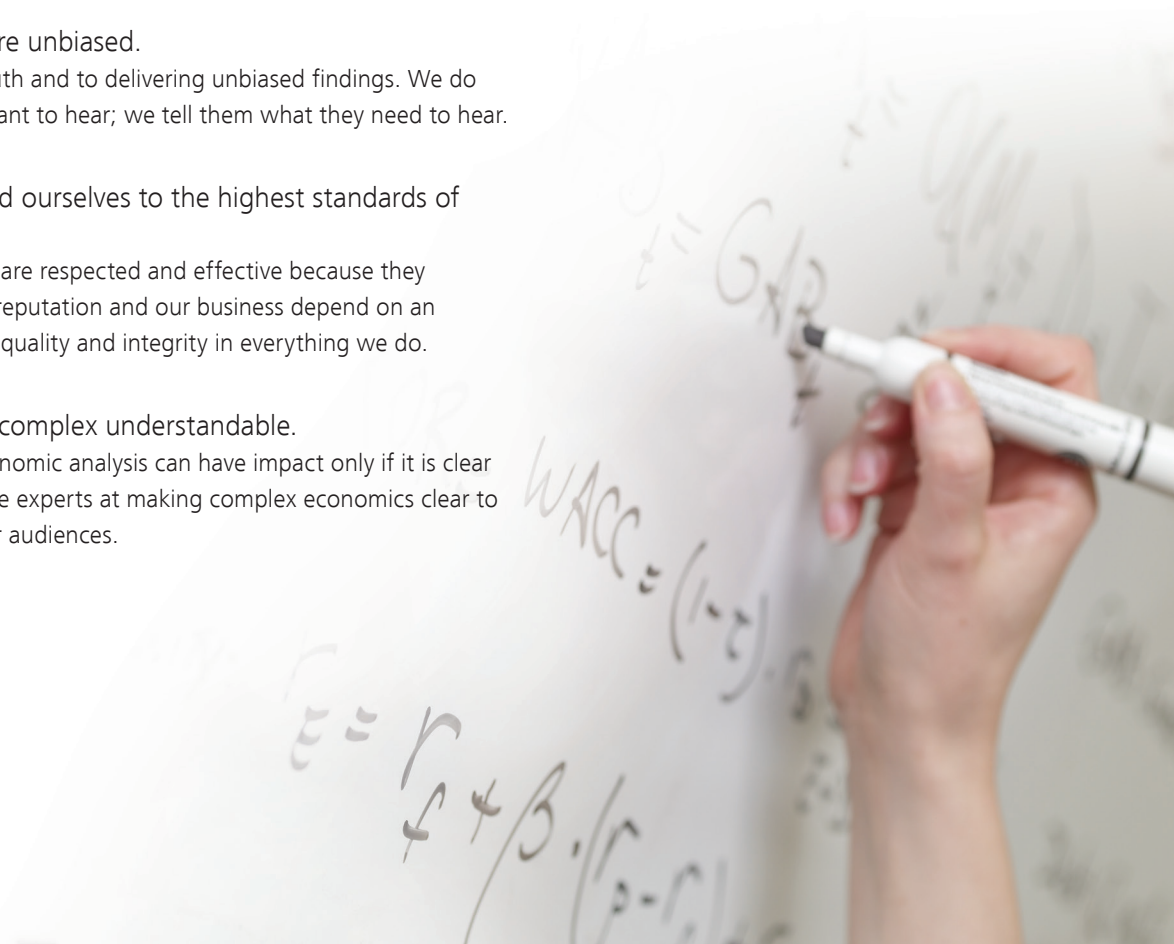

We are dedicated to the truth and to delivering unbiased findings. We do not tell clients what they want to hear; we tell them what they need to hear.

Defensibility—We hold ourselves to the highest standards of objectivity and integrity.

Our testimony and analysis are respected and effective because they are always defensible. Our reputation and our business depend on an unflinching commitment to quality and integrity in everything we do.

Clarity—We make the complex understandable.

Even the most rigorous economic analysis can have impact only if it is clear and understandable. We are experts at making complex economics clear to juries, regulators, and other audiences.

NERA combines the largest in-house team of economists in the economic consulting world with an extensive network of some of the leading academic and industry experts in their fields.

Insight from Our People

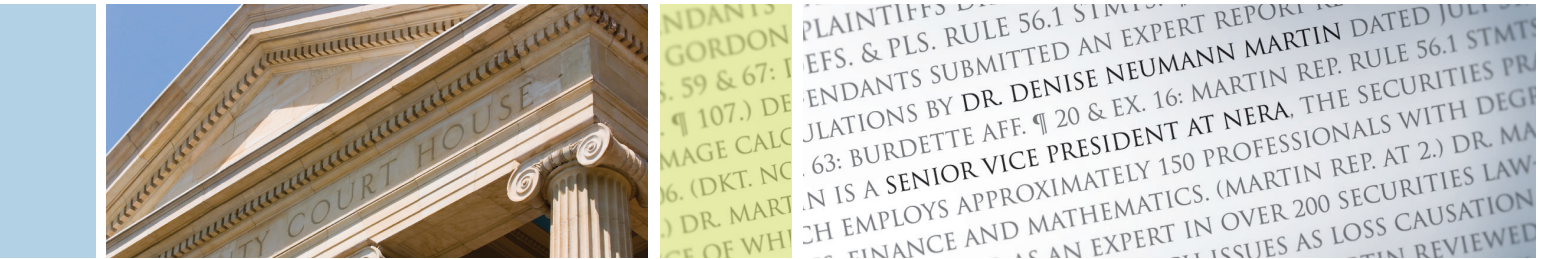

At NERA's core is an exceptional team of some of the world's leading experts in numerous industries and key disciplines, including microeconomics, finance, statistics, and accounting. Our experts have held senior economic positions in a variety of areas, including government agencies, major corporations, and leading universities. While we bring different backgrounds to our work on behalf of clients, we all share a passion for economics and place a premium on integrity and independence.

NERA combines the largest in-house team of economists in the economic consulting world with an extensive network of some of the leading academic and industry experts in their fields. This unique combination allows NERA to offer an unmatched breadth of testifying experience, specialized expertise, and credibility—critical elements for client success on assignments ranging from single-person advisory projects to the largest data-intensive litigation cases. We offer clients the coordination and efficiencies that come from the integration of senior project leaders with our teams of well-trained consultants and research staff. Our experts can focus fully on the needs of our clients, building relationships that in some instances have lasted for decades.

We are grounded in a set of core principles that have always guided our pioneering efforts: focus, independence, defensibility, and clarity.

Insight in Our Results

Clients come to NERA when they need an innovative approach to the economics of a tough problem, when they need a partner they know has the right experience and expertise, and when they are facing a challenge where the stakes are too high to risk failure.

For over half a century, NERA experts have played critical roles in client success in some of the world's highest-profile cases related to litigation, regulation, and business challenges.
